

REELFOOT LAKE CANOE FLOAT

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 29, 2011 AT 3:00PM

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 30, 2011 AT 9:00AM

Join Reelfoot Lake State Park and State Natural Area Staff for a beautiful fall canoe float on Reelfoot Lake. Fall brings thousands of migrating birds including white pelicans and Bald Eagles. The cypress turns a rusty red and there is no better time to explore this unique natural area.

Participants will meet at the Reelfoot Lake State Park Visitor Center. Canoe trip will be focused on fall colors, white pelican migration, history on Tennessee state natural areas and 200th anniversary of the formation of beautiful Reelfoot Lake. This canoe float is on flat water without current some upper-body strength is required and will last approximately three hours. Participants are encouraged to bring a snack, water to drink, sunscreen and insect repellent. Canoes, life jackets and paddles are provided. Reservations are required deadline is October 27, 2011 or until trip roster is full. You may sign up for any of the above trips by calling the Reelfoot Lake Visitor Center at (731)253-9652 or for more info please e-mail Robin.Wooten@tn.gov or David.Haggard@tn.gov.
